Part 1—Coverage and Operation

1. Title
This award is the Higher Education Industry—Academic Staff—Award 2010.

2. Commencement and transitional
[Varied by PR988378]
2.1 This award commences on 1 January 2010.
[2.2–2.5 inserted by PR988378]
2.2 The monetary obligations imposed on employers by this award may be absorbed into overaward payments. Nothing in this award requires an employer to maintain or increase any overaward payment.
2.3 Neither the making of this award nor the operation of any transitional arrangements is intended to result in a reduction in the take-home pay of employees covered by the award. On application by or on behalf of an employee who suffers a reduction in take-home pay as a result of the making of this award or the operation of any transitional arrangements, Fair Work Australia may make any order it considers appropriate to remedy the situation.
2.4 Fair Work Australia may review the transitional arrangements in this award and make a determination varying the award.
2.5 Fair Work Australia may review the transitional arrangements:
(a) on its own initiative; or
(b) on application by an employer, employee, organisation or outworker entity covered by the modern award; or
(c) on application by an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more employers or employees that are covered by the modern award; or
(d) in relation to outworker arrangements, on application by an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more outworkers to whom the arrangements relate.

3. Definitions and interpretation
3.1 In this award, unless the contrary intention appears:
Act means the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cth)
Commission means the Australian Industrial Relations Commission or its successor
Higher Education—Academic Staff—Award 2010

employee has the meaning in the Act employer has the meaning in the Act enterprise award has the meaning in the Act higher education industry means educational institutions providing undergraduate and postgraduate teaching leading to the conferring of accredited degrees and performing research to support and inform the curriculum
MSAL means Minimum Standards for Academic Levels
NES means National Employment Standards

3.2 Where this award refers to a condition of employment provided for in the NES, the NES definition applies.

4. Coverage

4.1 This industry award covers employers throughout Australia in the higher education industry as defined and their academic staff in the classifications listed in clause 18 to the exclusion of any other modern award.

4.2 The award does not cover an employee excluded from award coverage by the Act.

4.3 The award does not cover an employer bound by an enterprise award with respect to any employee who is covered by the enterprise award.

4.4 Where an employer is covered by more than one industry award, an employee of that employer is covered by the award classification which is most appropriate to the work performed by the employee and to the environment in which the employee normally performs the work.

NOTE: Where there is no classification for a particular employee in this award it is possible that the employer and that employee are covered by an award with occupational coverage.

5. Access to the award and the National Employment Standards

The employer must ensure that a copy of this award and the NES are available to all employees to whom they apply either on a noticeboard which is conveniently located at or near the workplace or through electronic means, whichever makes them more accessible.

6. The National Employment Standards and this award

The NES and this award contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this award.
7. Award flexibility

7.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this award, an employer and an individual employee may agree to vary the application of the annual leave loading to meet the genuine individual needs of the employer and the individual employee.

7.2 The employer and the individual employee must have genuinely made the agreement without coercion or duress.

7.3 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must:

(a) be confined to a variation in the application of the clause in relation to annual leave loading; and

(b) not disadvantage the individual employee in relation to the individual employee’s terms and conditions of employment.

7.4 For the purposes of clause 7.3(b) the agreement will be taken not to disadvantage the individual employee in relation to the individual employee’s terms and conditions of employment if:

(a) the agreement does not result, on balance, in a reduction in the overall terms and conditions of employment of the individual employee under this award and any applicable agreement made under the Act, as those instruments applied as at the date the agreement commences to operate; and

(b) the agreement does not result in a reduction in the terms and conditions of employment of the individual employee under any other relevant laws of the Commonwealth or any relevant laws of a State or Territory.

7.5 The agreement between the employer and the individual employee must also:

(a) be in writing, name the parties to the agreement and be signed by the employer and the individual employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, the employee’s parent or guardian;

(b) state each term of this award that the employer and the individual employee have agreed to vary;

(c) detail how the application of each term has been varied by agreement between the employer and the individual employee;

(d) detail how the agreement does not disadvantage the individual employee in relation to the individual employee’s terms and conditions of employment; and

(e) state the date the agreement commences to operate.

7.6 The employer must give the individual employee a copy of the agreement and keep the agreement as a time and wages record.

7.7 An employer seeking to enter into an agreement must provide a written proposal to the employee. Where the employee’s understanding of written English is limited the employer will take measures, including translation into an appropriate language, to ensure that the employee understands the proposal.
The agreement may be terminated:

(a) by the employer or the individual employee giving four weeks’ notice of termination, in writing, to the other party and the agreement ceasing to operate at the end of the notice period; or

(b) at any time, by written agreement between the employer and the individual employee.

The right to make an agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between an employer and an individual employee contained in any other term of this award.

Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

8. Consultation regarding major workplace change

8.1 Employer to notify

(a) Where an employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives, if any.

(b) Significant effects include termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer’s workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this award makes provision for alteration of any of these matters, an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

8.2 Employer to discuss change

(a) The employer must discuss with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 8.1(a), the effects the changes are likely to have on employees, and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and must give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes.

(b) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 8.1.

(c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, if any, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that no employer is required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be contrary to the employer’s interests.
9. Dispute resolution

9.1 In the event of a dispute about a matter under this award, or a dispute in relation to the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor. If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.

9.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this award or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 9.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Commission.

9.3 The parties may agree on the process to be utilised by the Commission including mediation, conciliation and consent arbitration.

9.4 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved the Commission may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

9.5 An employer or employee may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.

9.6 While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this award and the Act. Subject to the applicable occupational health and safety legislation, an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with the direction by the employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Termination of Employment

10. Employment

Each employer covered by this award must engage a person as an employee on terms that correspond with one or other of the types of employment prescribed in clause 11.

The restriction on the use of fixed term employment only applies to those employers who were bound to the Higher Education Contract of Employment Award [AP784204] at the time of its making.

To avoid doubt, nothing in this award prevents an employee engaging in additional work as a casual employee in work unrelated to, or identifiably separate from, the employee’s normal duties. Nothing in this award limits the number or proportion of employees that an employer may employ in a particular type of employment.

11. Employment categories

11.1 Full-time employment means all employment other than fixed-term, part-time, or casual. Full-time employment may contain a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out under the contract. As a condition incidental to employment on probation, an employee must be advised of,
and given an opportunity to make response to, any adverse material about the employee which the employer intends to take into account in a decision to terminate the employment upon or before the expiry of the period of probation.

11.2 Part-time employment means employment for less than the normal weekly ordinary hours specified for a full-time employee, for which all award entitlements are paid on a pro rata basis calculated by reference to the time worked. Part-time employment may contain a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out under the contract. As a condition incidental to employment on probation, an employee must be advised of, and given an opportunity to make response to, any adverse material about the employee which the employer intends to take into account in a decision to terminate the employment upon or before the expiry of the period of probation.

11.3 Fixed-term employment means employment for a specified term or ascertainable period, for which the instrument of engagement will specify the starting and finishing dates of that employment (or instead of a finishing date, will specify the circumstance(s) or contingency relating to a specific task or project, upon the occurrence of which the term of the employment will expire). During the term of employment, the contract is not terminable by the employer other than during a probationary period, or for cause based upon serious or wilful misconduct.

Fixed-term employment may contain a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out under the contract. As a condition incidental to employment on probation, an employee must be advised of, and given an opportunity to make response to, any adverse material about the employee which the employer intends to take into account in a decision to terminate the employment upon or before the expiry of the period of probation.

Any second or subsequent fixed-term contract, with the same employer, must not contain a probationary period.

The use of fixed-term employment must be limited to the employment of an employee engaged on work activity that comes within the description of one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) Specific task or project means a definable work activity which has a starting time and which is expected to be completed within an anticipated timeframe. Without limiting the generality of that circumstance, it will also include a period of employment provided for from identifiable funding external to the employer, not being funding that is part of an operating grant from government or funding comprised of payments of fees made by or on behalf of students.

(b) Research means work activity by a person engaged on research only functions for a contract period not exceeding five years.

(c) Replacement employee means an employee:

(i) undertaking work activity replacing a full-time or part-time employee for a definable period for which the replaced employee is either on authorised leave of absence or is temporarily seconded away from their usual work area; or

(ii) performing the duties of:
Higher Education—Academic Staff—Award 2010

- a vacant position for which the employer has made a definite decision to fill and has commenced recruitment action; or

- a position the normal occupant of which is performing higher duties pending the outcome of recruitment action initiated by the employer and in progress for that vacant higher duties position; or

- until a full-time or part-time employee is engaged for the vacant position or vacant higher duties position as applicable.

(d) Recent professional practice required

Where a curriculum in professional or vocational education requires that work be undertaken by a person to be engaged who has recent practical or commercial experience, such a person may be engaged for a fixed period not exceeding two years.

(e) Pre-retirement contract

Where a full-time or a part-time employee declares that it is their intention to retire, a fixed-term contract expiring on or around the relevant retirement date may be adopted as the appropriate type of employment for a period of up to five years.

(f) Fixed-term contract employment subsidiary to studentship

Where a person is enrolled as a student, employment under a fixed-term contract may be adopted as the appropriate type of employment for work activity, not within the description of another circumstance in the preceding paragraphs of this clause, that is work within the student’s academic unit or an associated research unit of that academic unit and is work generally related to a degree course that the student is undertaking within the academic unit, provided that:

(i) such fixed-term contract employment will be for a period that does not extend beyond, or that expires at the end of, the academic year in which the person ceases to be a student, including any period that the person is not enrolled as a student but is still completing postgraduate work or is awaiting results; and

(ii) that an offer of fixed-term employment under this paragraph must not be made on the condition that the person offered the employment undertake the studentship.

12. Incidents of fixed-term contract of employment

This clause only applies to those employers who were bound to the Higher Education Contract of Employment Award 1998 [AP784204].

Without derogating from any entitlement under the employee’s contract or under an award provision applicable to the employee on account of the employee’s continuous service, a fixed-term contract employee must be entitled to:
12.1 Incremental advancement

A fixed-term employee who has a period of continuous service in a classification must be entitled to progress through that structure in the same way as an employee engaged as a full-time or part-time employee in the same or similar classification.

12.2 Notice of cessation or revocation of employment upon expiry of the contract

The employer will provide to a fixed-term employee, written notice of the employer’s intention to renew, or not to renew, employment with the employer upon the expiry of the contract. Such notice will be the greater of:

(a) any entitlement to notice of the employer’s intention to renew, or not to renew, employment with the employee upon the expiry of the contract; or

<tr>
<td>1 year but less than 3 years</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 years but less than 5 years</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>5 years or over</td>
<td>at least 4 weeks, or the equivalent of a full pay period, whichever is the greater</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(b) In addition to this notice, an employee over the age of 45 years at the time of the giving of notice and with not less than two years continuous service will be entitled to an additional week’s notice.

12.3 Where, because of circumstances relating to the provision of specific funding to support employment external to the employer and beyond its control, the employer is not reasonably able to give the notice required by this subclause, it will be sufficient compliance with this clause if the employer:

(a) advises those circumstances to the employee in writing by the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given; and

(b) gives notice to the employee at the earliest practicable date thereafter.

12.4 Severance pay

A fixed-term employee whose contract of employment is not renewed in circumstances where the employee seeks to continue the employment will be entitled to a severance payment or retrenchment benefit payment howsoever called in accordance with the NES as it would apply to a full-time employee engaged in an equivalent classification in the following circumstances:

(a) employee is employed on a second or subsequent fixed term contract to do work required for the circumstances described in clause 11.3(a) or (b) and the same or substantially similar duties are no longer required by the employer; or

(b) employee is employed on a fixed term contract to do work required for the circumstances described in clause 11.3(a) or (b) and the duties of the kind performed in relation to work continue to be required but another person has been appointed, or is to be appointed, to the same or substantially similar duties.

Where an employer advises an academic in writing that further employment may be offered within six weeks of the expiry of a period of fixed-term employment, then:

(c) The employer may defer payment of severance benefits for a maximum period of four weeks from the expiry of the period of fixed-term employment.

An employer, in a particular case, may make an application to the Commission to have the general severance payment or retrenchment benefit payment prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for the employee.

12.5 Award entitlements and calculation of continuous service

(a) A fixed-term employee will be entitled to the same award terms and conditions in respect to award matters as would apply to a full-time or part-time employee engaged in an equivalent classification and working an equivalent proportion of normal weekly ordinary hours for the classification.

(b) For the purpose of this award, breaks between fixed-term appointments of up to two times per year and of up to six weeks in total will not constitute breaks in continuous service.

(c) Periods of approved unpaid leave will not count for service, but will not constitute breaks in service for the purposes of this clause.

12.6 Right of application

No employee employed on a fixed-term contract (other than an employee employed on a pre-retirement contract within the meaning of clause 11.3(e)) will be prevented from making application to an employer, nor having their application for employment within the terms of this award considered, solely because the employee has previously been employed on a fixed-term contract by the same employer.

13. Casual employment and loading

13.1 Casual employment is employment by the hour and paid a rate on an hourly basis that includes a loading related to award-based benefits for which a casual employee is not eligible. A casual employee will be paid per hour 1/38 of the weekly base rate derived from the relevant classification plus a loading of 25%.

13.2 Formulae

The minimum salary paid to academic staff employed on a casual basis will be at the rates provided for in clause 18.2. These rates are derived from three base rates calculated using the following formulae:

(a) Lecturing and higher marking rate

The base rate applicable to lecturing or for purposes of the higher marking rate is determined by reference to the second step of the full-time Level B scale.
(b) Rate applicable to performance of other duties involving full-time subject coordination or possession of a relevant doctoral qualification

The base rate applicable where the duties include full subject coordination or where the academic possesses a relevant doctoral qualification is determined by reference to the sixth step of the full-time Level A scale.

(c) Rate applicable to all other duties

The base rate applicable to all other duties including tutoring rates not covered above is determined by reference to the second step of the full-time Level A scale.

14. Requirement to state terms of engagement

14.1 Upon engagement, the employer must provide to the employee an instrument of appointment which stipulates the type of employment and informs the employee of the terms of engagement at the time of the appointment in relation to:

(a) for employees other than casual employees, the classification level and salary of the employee on commencement of the employment, and the hours or the fraction of full-time hours to be worked;

(b) for a fixed-term employee, the term of the employment, the length and terms of any period of probation, and the circumstance(s) by reference to which the use of fixed-term contract for the type of employment has been decided for that employment;

(c) for casual employees, the duties required, the number of hours required, the rate of pay for each class of duty required and a statement that any additional duties required during the term will be paid for;

(d) for any employee subject to probationary employment, the length and terms of the probation; or

(e) other main conditions of employment including the identity of the employer, or the documentary, or other recorded sources from which such conditions derive, and the duties and reporting relationships to apply upon appointment that can be ascertained.

15. Termination of employment

15.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.

15.2 Notice of termination by an employee

(a) The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of an employer except that there is no requirement on the employee to give additional notice based on the age of the employee concerned. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this award or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this award in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

(b) The minimum period of notice of termination, or pay instead of notice, to be given by an employer to an academic staff member who is terminated on the grounds of ill health or redundancy will be six months.

15.3 Job search entitlement

Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day’s time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

16. Redundancy

16.1 Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES.

16.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the employer may, at the employer’s option, make payment instead of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

16.3 Employee leaving during notice period

An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

16.4 Job search entitlement

(a) An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day’s time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

(b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration is sufficient.

(c) This entitlement applies instead of clause 15.3.
17. Industry specific redundancy provisions

17.1 This clause applies to any institution which:

- (a) was bound by the Universities and Post Compulsory Academic Conditions Award 1999 [AP801516] at 12 September 2008; and

- (b) has decided to terminate the employment of one or more academic employees for reasons of an economic, technological, structural or similar nature, including:
  - (i) a decrease in student demand or enrolments in any academic course or subject or combination or mix of courses or subjects conducted on one or more campuses;
  - (ii) a decision to cease offering or to vary the academic context of any course or subject or combination or mix of courses or subjects conducted on one or more campuses;
  - (iii) financial exigency within an organisational unit or cost centre; or
  - (iv) changes in technology or work methods.

17.2 All payments under this clause will be calculated on the employee’s salary at the date of cessation of employment and the benefits in this clause are instead of any other notice period, access to a scheme of redeployment or other redundancy benefit.

17.3 The benefits of this clause do not constitute a severance payment or retrenchment benefit payment for the purposes of clause 12.4.

17.4 If an employee is ill during the period of notice and provides the employer with a medical certificate to this effect, stating the period of illness, the notice prescribed by this clause will be extended for that period. However, the extension will be limited to the extent of an employees accumulated sick leave entitlement and will be available in accordance with the terms otherwise applicable to the utilisation of sick leave.

17.5 Employees accepting redundancy

Where an employee volunteers to accept termination of employment by reason of redundancy and the employee’s employment is terminated by the employer accordingly, the following conditions will apply:

- (a) the employee will be notified of the date on which their employment will terminate;

- (b) this date will be no less than six months from the date of notification;

- (c) the employer may elect to pay to the employee an amount equal to six months pay instead of the period of notice;

- (d) during the period of notice of termination the employee may request and the employer may agree that the balance of the period be waived, in which case the employee is entitled to payment for the balance of the period or four weeks’ pay, whichever is the lesser;

- (e) the employee must be paid a redundancy payment of:
(i) a sum calculated at the rate of two weeks’ salary per completed year of service with the employer, to a maximum entitlement of 52 weeks’ salary; and

(ii) payment on a pro rata basis for long service leave calculated on completed years of service.

17.6 Employees not accepting redundancy

Where an employee is not a volunteer for redundancy and the employer terminates the employment of an employee for reason of redundancy the following benefits will apply:

(a) the greater of the period of notice prescribed by the NES or the contract of employment of the employee; plus

(b) notice according to the following scale:

(c) on retrenchment, an employee must, in addition, receive the amount of severance pay set out in the NES in respect of a continuous period of service.

Part 4—Rates of pay, Classifications and Related Matters

18. Classification of academic staff

Minimum standards for levels of academic staff, other than a casual, are set out in clause Schedule A–MSAL. The levels are differentiated by level of complexity, degree of autonomy, leadership requirements of the position and level of achievement of the academic. The responsibilities of academic staff may vary according to the specific requirements of the employer to meet its objectives, to different discipline requirements and/or to individual staff development.

An academic appointed to a particular level may be assigned and may be expected to undertake responsibilities and functions of any level up to and including the level to which the academic is appointed or promoted. In addition, an academic may undertake elements of the work of a higher level in order to gain experience and expertise consistent with the requirements of an institution’s promotion processes.
MSAL will not be used as a basis for claims for reclassification.

18.3 Professorial and clinical loadings

(a) Any employer may pay loadings and differentials above the standard Level E salary to its teaching and research Level E academic staff.

(b) In determining the amount of the loading or differential to be paid under clause 18.3(a), the employer will have regard to the loadings payable in clauses 18.3(c) to (g).

(c) The clinical loading for a medically qualified full-time teaching and research Level B–E academic employed in a full clinical department in a medical school and responsible for patient care will be $17,361 per annum.

(d) The clinical loading for a medically qualified full-time teaching and research Level B–E academic employed in a para-clinical department in a medical school will be $11,589 per annum.

(e) The clinical loading for a medically qualified full-time teaching and research Level B–E academic employed in a pre-clinical department in a medical school will be $8,692 per annum.

(f) Whether an academic is entitled to a full clinical loading rather than to a loading of $11,589 or $8,692 per annum should be determined by each employer in light of the nature and extent of the academic’s patient-care responsibilities.

(g) The clinical loading for a dentally qualified full-time teaching and research Level B–E academic employed in a medical school or dental school in the teaching of medical or dental students will be $8,692 per annum.
18.4 Payments and periods of leave

All clinical loadings and professorial merit differentials are superannuable and will be paid to an academic during periods of study leave, annual leave and long service leave.

19. Salary movement within an academic level

19.1 An academic staff member will be eligible for movement to the next highest salary point within the academic level as set out in the rates of pay as follows:

(a) at the conclusion of each 12 month period, following the date of effect of the award or entry into an academic level as set out in the MSAL or the subsequent anniversary date; and

(b) following a staff development/performance review.

19.2 Movement to the next salary point within the academic level will occur only when an academic staff member has been advised in writing that over the preceding twelve months, they:

(a) have acquired and used additional skills, experience and knowledge within the ambit of the appropriate academic level, as set out in the MSAL and in accordance with the priorities of the organisational unit and/or institution. For this purpose the academic staff member will be assessed against the relevant criteria used in a staff development/performance review; and

(b) have demonstrated satisfactory performance against the appropriate academic level as set out in the MSAL.

19.3 Movement to the next highest salary point will be effective from the anniversary date. In cases where a staff development/performance review is delayed, the anniversary date will not be changed and any increase in salary will be paid retrospectively to the anniversary date, unless the delay is related to the acquisition of new skills and greater responsibility in which case the date of acquisition will be the effective date.

19.4 An academic staff member who has been absent in excess of three months, in aggregate, will have the review delayed by the period of absence. Any resultant increase will also be delayed by the period of absence.

19.5 An annual staff development/performance review will be conducted for all academic staff members. Such a review will be confidential and will normally be conducted by the relevant supervisor within the organisational unit in which the academic staff member is located. The aims of the review will at least include:

(a) assessment of performance and the acquisition and use of skills over the preceding 12 months against objective criteria within the relevant academic level in the MSAL, including:

(i) undergraduate and postgraduate teaching as allocated by the supervisor in accordance with the organisational unit’s priorities;

(ii) other undergraduate and postgraduate teaching as undertaken for the institution;
(iii) contributions to scholarly, research, creative and/or professional activities appropriate to the staff member’s profession or discipline;

(iv) participation in the administration of the institution and/or provision of leadership and the undertaking of administration activities of an organisational unit as allocated by the institution; and

(v) contribution to professional activities relevant to the profession, discipline and/or community.

(b) Identification of the development and training needs of the academic staff member in order to:

(i) enable the acquisition and use of new skills, experience and knowledge in accordance with the priorities of the organisational unit and/or the institution;

(ii) identify performance objectives; and

(iii) ensure continued satisfactory performance within the ambit of the academic level.

20. Payment of wages

An academic staff member’s salary will be paid fortnightly by electronic funds transfer.

20.1 Payment to casual staff members

A casual staff member will be paid within 22 days of submitting a completed valid claim for payment to the appropriate representative as identified by the employer to the staff member.

21. Superannuation

21.1 Superannuation Legislation

(a) Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of employers and employees. Under superannuation legislation individual employees generally have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. If an employee does not choose a superannuation fund, any superannuation fund nominated in the award covering the employee applies.

(b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

21.2 Employer contributions

(a) An employer must make such superannuation contributions to a superannuation fund for the benefit of an employee as will avoid the employer being required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge under superannuation legislation with respect to that employee.

(b) Employers who, before 12 September 2008 made contributions of 3% to the Tertiary Education Superannuation Scheme for the benefit of employees for whom they were not required to pay the superannuation guarantee charge, must continue to make such contributions as if the Tertiary Education Superannuation Scheme – Superannuation Award 1988 [AP799601] continued to apply.

21.3 Voluntary employee contributions

(a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise their employer to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2.

(b) An employee may adjust the amount the employee has authorised their employer to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months’ written notice to their employer.

(c) The employer must pay the amount authorised under clause 21.3(a) or (b) no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction was authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b).

21.4 Superannuation fund

Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the employer is required to make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the employee, the employer must make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.3(a) and (b) to:

(a) Unisuper; or

(b) any superannuation fund to which the employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund.

21.5 Absence from work

Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, the employer must also make the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 21.2 and pay the amount authorised under clauses 21.3(a) or (b):

(a) Paid leave—while the employee is on any paid leave;

(b) Work-related injury or illness—for the period of absence from work (subject to a maximum of 52 weeks) of the employee due to work-related injury or work-related illness provided that:

   (i) the employee is receiving workers compensation payments or is receiving regular payments directly from the employer in accordance with the statutory requirements; and
Part 5—Hours of Work

22. Hours of work

For the purpose of the NES, ordinary hours of work under this award are 38 per week.

Part 6—Leave and Public Holidays

23. Annual leave

Annual leave is provided for in the NES. Annual leave does not apply to casual employees.

23.1 Management of annual leave

A staff member whose accrued annual leave entitlement equals or exceeds 30 days may be required in writing to take accrued annual leave, but only if the requirement is reasonable.

The employer must give at least 2 months notice of the date on which the staff member is required to take leave and where a staff member is directed to take annual leave, the employer will be entitled to deduct the amount of annual leave directed to be taken, at the conclusion of the period of leave.

23.2 Payment of annual leave on termination

Payment of base salary instead of annual leave will be made for any entitlement to annual leave accrued but not taken on termination. Where termination of employment is due to the staff member’s death, such payment will be made to the staff member’s estate.

23.3 Leave loading

Academic staff will be entitled on a payday preceding 1 January to an annual leave loading equal to 17.5% of salary for the period of leave accrued, with a maximum payment equal to the Australian Bureau of Statistics’ average weekly total earnings of all males (Australia) for the August quarter preceding the date of accrual.

24. Parental leave

24.1 The entitlement to parental leave is set out in the NES.

The NES is supplemented by maintaining an entitlement to payment in relation to maternity leave, adoption leave or paternity leave for employees in the classifications under this award of employers and who were entitled to payment for maternity leave, adoption leave or paternity leave in accordance with the terms of an award made under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cth):
(a) that would have applied to the employee immediately prior to 1 January 2010, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no agreement made under the Act had applied to the employee; and

(b) that would have entitled the employee to paid maternity leave, paternity leave or adoption leave.

25. Personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave

25.1 Personal/carer’s leave and compassionate leave are provided for in the NES.

25.2 In relation to compassionate leave the entitlement will be three days of compassionate leave for each permissible occasion.

25.3 Casuals

(a) Subject to the evidentiary and notice requirements as provided for in the NES, casual employees are entitled to not be available to attend work or to leave work:

(i) if they need to care for members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care and support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency or the birth of a child; or

(ii) upon the death in Australia of an immediate family or household member.

(b) The employer and the employee will agree on the period for which the employee will be entitled to not be available to attend work. In the absence of agreement, the employee is entitled to not be available to attend work for up to 48 hours (i.e. two days) per occasion.

(c) The casual employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.

26. Community service leave

Community service leave is provided for in the NES.

27. Public holidays

27.1 Public Holidays are provided for in the NES.

27.2 Substitution of public holidays where University holidays provided

An employer may substitute a public holiday or part holiday for another working day or part-day to be taken during a period of institutional close-down. Where substitution occurs the substituted day or part day will be the public holiday for the purposes of this award.
